“ *God Speed Alan! I will always remember our times at Lucas County!
The best times were not at work though... It was when Alan taught me to take the Tarta Bus to work! Riding that bus to work was the best cure for road rage! I will miss running into Alan at auctions and all the discussions about farming and our retirement woes! He will be missed.*

“ Met Alan in high school and got to know him very well over the years since. Absolutely a wholesome responsible man who cared, and held an even keel in the face of adversity. His family can be very proud of the life he lived.

“ I am so saddened to hear of Alan's passing. Alan and I were both promoted to leadership positions in Child Support around the same time. We got to know each other when we went to new director's training together. Over the years, we worked closely together on a number of child support cases. I always found him to be friendly, positive and helpful. I'm so very sorry for your loss.
