“ Our deepest condolences to the Vandenberghe family. Albert was a good man. Our family met the Vandenberghe family in 1956. Our family worked for Albert picking tomatoes from 1956 to 1971. I remember playing with Linda and my younger brothers playing with Mike. They kept in touch with us through the years. At Christmas, we would received Christmas cards and pictures of the families. We looked forward to seeing the pictures. Albert like being around my older brothers and they enjoyed kidding around with each other. Our prayers are with you.

“ I always loved my sick days when I got to stay home from school, and sit with him in the living room watching Price is Right. I'd somehow always feel better by the afternoon, and out we would go to the barn to check on the tractors. He was just the best grandpa, always with a smirk and something to tease me about. He kept me on my toes. And his love for his family was so big, you could feel it throughout the entire home. I will miss him so much, but know his spirit is living on through all of us!
