“ I'm so sorry for your loss of Alex, Beulah. I dealt to him at the casino and always enjoyed his company. He was a great guy and everyone who knew him liked him. Many times when I pushed him a pot, he'd tip me, telling me I didn't deserve it, then he'd give me a little smile letting me know he was kidding, which I knew but still enjoyed it every time.

He will be missed in the poker room. Praying for you thru this rough time that God would bless you with His comfort and peace.

“ Very shocked to hear of Alex's passing. We were sitting on the porch Sunday evening and had just seen him outside. I have lived across the street from Beulah and Alex since 1975. I always admired how well Alex kept and maintained their yard and landscaping, as he was always doing something to keep it looking nice.

It will be quite different without Alex as a neighbor, as you become comfortable knowing they are right across the street for such a long time.

Prayers for Beulah and all of their Family.
