

Angelita Helen Callo

January 27, 1932 - November 3, 2025

Angelita Helen Callo, 93, of Napoleon, Ohio, passed away on November 3, 2025 at Northcrest Nursing Home. She was born on January 27, 1932 in the Philippines to the late Gregorio and Emcarnacion (Cabanoyan) Callo. Angelita had three brothers and one sister who preceded her in death.

She graduated in 1953 at the University of the East Manila, Philippines with a bachelor's degree in education. Angelita taught at the high school level for 12 years and 7 years at the elementary level at Narvacan Ilocos Sur. Upon moving to the US, her qualifications were accepted as an Elementary Teacher in the State of Iowa. During the summers, she studied at the University of Iowa, Northeast Missouri State and Northern Illinois University to complete her certificate. Angelita continued to teach at Van Buren School in Keosauqua, Iowa and at ST. Paul School in Burlington, Iowa. Upon moving to Ohio, she discovered that she needed further education to teach in Ohio, so she completed her Ohio credentials through the University of Toledo. It was hard to find a full-time teaching position, so she substitute taught for 33 years. Angelita also worked for 25 years as the nightshift Supply Aide at Fulton County Health Center, where she eventually retired from.

Services will be private. Memorial contributions in her honor may be made to a charity of your choice. Online condolences may be shared at rodenbergergray.com.

“ I worked with Helen at FCHC during the blizzard of 78. We had to stay over a couple of nights and she had a water bed in the room she had. Just waited to hear her stories the next morning. She was a treat to work with and I'm sure she will be missed.

“ I will closely hold in my heart many fond memories of Angelita. She and I used to sometimes sit together at St. Augustine. I loved her company, the smile that lit up her entire face, and her tiny body that packed a BIG HUG ! I will miss the "goodness" that was her very being, yet I rejoice knowing Heaven just welcomed one of our "Earthly" Angels !
