“ My condolences to the family, he will be missed by all of us. I will never forget about 25 years ago my ex and him became friends in the work program, on one of my visits, me and my ex was arguing through the window about him be my cousin (Tony with his look sat there quietly, making me second guessing if it was Tony sence I haven't seen him in a while ) then when he finally shut up then Tony looked at him and said oh by the way that's my cousin just had to be there it was funny and I never forgot that moment.
