Tony was a quiet and caring student at our HS. We underclassmen appreciated his patience and quiet attention among so many other over active youth. Thank you Tony for your caring smile. You have come to my mind several times in the past years even though we have not met or spoken in decades.

We go back a long way being born a few days apart as first cousins just down the road; going to school many years and then going our own way. I remember traveling to Upper Michigan with your Mom and day seeing the big Mack Bridge. Also remember trying to sing a high Mass together at Nazareth Hall one morning at 0700 for the nuns there. We were terrible. Mary Ann would have killed us if she heard us. We were sophomores in the seminary home on summer break. Am so sorry the Lord took you so quick. May the goodness of the Lord see us together on our true home in the real lasting, beautiful Heaven. RIP

A good description, Dan. Quiet and caring. He was two years ahead of me. He had a cousin in my class. Walt
