“ I went to Shippawana with a group of ladies..Some from work,Bev drove her Aunts van. We were going along talking,laughing at looking forward to the day!! One of the ladies,asked your Mom to stop smoking!!(the the smoke bothered her). Bev and i held our breath ,i was upfront with Bev,I opened the window,she yelled at me,said that made it worse!!

Your Mom had had enough, She said you all knew I smoked! I asked if my smoking would bother any one? NO ONE said anything!! And besides this is my vehicle!!!! Never saw anyone so mad as Arelene!!

The two ladies didnt speak to each other all day. We all went around having a great time. Never saw the one all day! Your Mom said, if shes not at the van when its time to leave, were leaving her here!! She made it. On the way home we stopped to eat,we all went in,except one who stayed in the van and waited until we were finished. She told us all,she was upset because we never said we were going to eat.

We all laughed about the day everytime we'd get together!!! Your Mom told us "never invite that woman ever again!! It was really a great day for the rest of us....Arlene was a one of a kind,she will be greatly missed by all.....
