“ I have so many good memories of life on Stevenson Street between the Slight and Ludeman/Hershberger houses. I recall being carried home by Anna after falling off my bicycle. I recall one event with Dorothy and her Hawaiian guitar and me with me accordion, trying our best to make beautiful music together. :) I recall admiring a beautiful bride doll in the living room closet of your house.....oh, how I wished for a beautiful bride doll like that. :) I know she would smile too with those memories....but that doesn't make it less painful for all of us mourning her death. Please accept our sympathy for your loss. Connie and Larry Holers##imported-begin##Connie Holers##imported-end##
