“ Art, I will miss seeing you in Walmart. You always had a funny story to share with me when we would see you and Barb. The days we spent over coffee at Amvets and shooting the breeze with you will be remembered very fondly. Till we meet again, old friend. God speed.

“ Uncle Bill was always funny and full of spunk. He and Barb always came to our family functions even when we'd tease him over the years as we all got taller than him. I loved coming back to Ohio and stopping to see them or seeing them at our functions. My own family always knew who he was when I mentioned his name, tho the kids used to say the short guy. RIP Bill You'll be missed dearly. Love you.
