“ I was the director of the Patrick Henry public libraries while Audrey was there. She had such a passion for children. She was so excited when I ordered a set of U.S. states books in color. She said the children will love these! Blessings on your grief journey. Esther Nagel

“ Dear Gary, Shelia, Chip and families, Audrey was one of the nicest and most beautiful women whom I was fortunate to know. Her beautiful smile and quiet sense of humor will always be cherished. How blessed you were to have had her in your life. An amazing lady. My sincere condolences to all of you.

“ Audrey, Doreen, and I were the Dor-A-Lin’s trio who appeared in tv, radio, and fairs, etc. Audrey was not only a classmate for 12 years but was one of my bridesmaids - even though we lived far a part we still kept up by phone a few times year - Audrey will always hold a special spot in my heart - loved her dearly

“ Sorry for the loss of Audrey. I knew her, as well as her family through Tontogany Presbyterian Church, and also through school. She was a bright, kind person. And yes, the Dor-A-Lins were a very good trio and performed at many events. They wore matching, fancy dresses as I remember. My condolences.
