

Austermiller Ruth

May 8, 2011

Ruth Pearl (Marshall) Austermiller died peacefully at her home on Sunday, May 8, at the age of 90. She was born April 23, 1921, in Baltimore, MD. After graduation from Church Home Nursing School, she became a U.S. Army nurse. She met her husband, Darel Austermiller, while on active duty in the Southwest Pacific. They married on February 26, 1946, and moved to Napoleon, Ohio, where they enjoyed a blissful 65-year marriage. Mrs. Austermiller worked as a nurse, at the family's Western Auto Store and as a volunteer. She was a long-time member of St. Paul Lutheran Church. She enjoyed walking, swimming, reading and golf. She is survived by her husband, Darel Austermiller of Napoleon, step-brother Eugene Peacock (New Albany, IN), three children and their families including Daryl Austermiller and daughter-in-law Karen (Prescott, AZ), Robert Austermiller and daughter-in-law Cheryl (Elbert, CO) and Sue Austermiller Brush (Seattle, WA); grandchildren Matthew Austermiller and wife Brooke (Colorado Springs, CO) and Kevin Brush (New York City) and great-granddaughters Jayden and Emery Austermiller (Colorado Springs, CO). Viewing will be held at Rodenberger Funeral Home, Napoleon on Wednesday, May 11, from 3-6 pm and at St. Paul Lutheran Church on Thursday, May 12 from 10-11 a.m. A funeral service honoring Mrs. Austermiller will be held Thursday, May 12 at 11 a.m. at St. Paul Lutheran Church in Napoleon with a luncheon to follow. Memorials are suggested to St. Paul Lutheran School or charity of choice.
