“ I met Barb in 2000 when I returned to Napoleon after 40 years, I rented a storage unit. She soon became like an older sister. She was kind. And always willing to open her lovely home to pot lucks and entertainment. She was caring for her father Clarence and Charlie the cat. Barb was proud of her familythe kids, and love of god. I know she is happy to be in arms of her loveing God. She will be missed.
