“ Bill, the youngest of my three brothers, was also the shyest. His service in the Army in World War II would change all that. He and his wife Waneta, ended up with more children, grandchildren and great grandchildren than the rest of us put together. Thanks to them, there will be Boyers in the area and elsewhere for many years to come. He was a wonderful brother and a good man who loved his family very much. We are comforted in knowing that he is at home in heaven with God. We have our memories of Bill to keep him alive in our hearts.##imported-begin##Jack And Donna Jean (boyer) Kuhns##imported-end##
