“ Brent was super close to my heart he meant the world to me he could make me laugh when I wanted to cry when I was in the dumps he could bring my spirits up so much he could light up the room for almost anyone! He was such an awesome drummer he would talk anyone into letting him play wherever there were drums lol and he could play anything by ear! He was amazing at so many things...he had such a great heart he could clean my trashed car which my kids had dirtied soooo so bad in such a short amount of time it was amazing he just made the most of everything he did the same with Food! He would make these homemade nachos with all these crazy ingredients in the fridge and it would taste amazing!! He and I had so many great memories he would go out with me and we would dance and just have a great time and sometimes we would just sit and talk about life but no matter what he had my back and I loved him and he had me! I already sit and cherish the good times and think of him when I hear songs on the radio when I hear them I will never stop thinking of him or forget him or stop loving him and can't wait to see him until I see you again brent I love you always and forever 💕💕💕

“ Jim, Deb, I am sitting here now crying my eyes out. It is like loosing 1 of my own. Brent was such a large part of my life so many years ago. Such a sweet and lovable kid. I am just devastated. The last time I saw him was many years ago, but I remember he gave me a hug and told me he would try. (private conversation between us). I love him and will miss him so much.
