“ I remember Jimmy fondly. He and the Brown family would visit their W.V. family during the summer. I was just a little girl and I always remember him with a smile on his face. I never saw him without a smile. He was a very nice person with a big sense of humor. As I grew up and my family moved to Va. I of course missed my Granny especially, but still to this day, I miss the family summers we shared and I will always remember sharing some of my summer with The Brown Family. GOD bless each and everyone. One day we will have our reunion back. Looking forward to that day with my family I love so much.##imported-begin##Angie Mamola-culbertson##imported-end##

“ To Jim & Pat Brown, and all the family of Jimmy our prayer are with you all at this time of sorry, Jimmy was a fine young man, and to wonder what God has in store for him is a mystery, at such a young age to leave his family behind, but GOD will see you through it all.
