

Buchanan B. Alvina

May 29, 2009

Alvina B. Buchanan March 22, 1912-May 29, 2009 Alvina B. Buchanan, 97, of Hoytville, Ohio died Friday morning, May 29, 2009 at Blanchard Valley Regional Health Center, Findlay, Ohio. She was born March 22, 1912 in Streator, Illinois to the late Henry and Gotthelfa (Kohn) Pas. On June 8, 1935 she married George C. Buchanan and he preceded her in death on August 27, 1974. Alvina attended the Jackson Township High School and was a homemaker. Earlier in life; she was called upon by many families of the Jackson Township-Hoytville area as a mid-wife. Alvina was a very devoted member of the Deshler Church of the Brethren and worked the polls for the Wood County Board of Elections at the Jackson Township Precinct. When not busy helping others; she enjoyed gardening, cooking and baking. Alvina is survived by two daughters, Bertha (James) Carter, Cygnet, Ohio; Alma (Paul) Ault, Dayton, Ohio; a son, Donald (Ruth) Buchanan, Anchorage, Alaska; 10 grandchildren and 23 great grandchildren. She was also preceded in death by a brother, George Pas and four sisters, Augusta Hartman, Marie George, Anna Pas and Laura Davis. Funeral services will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Tuesday at Rodenberger Funeral Home, Deshler with Pastor Gene Yenser officiating. Interment will follow in the Woodlawn Cemetery, Deshler. Visitation will be held from 3-8 p.m. on Monday and from 10-11 a.m. prior to the service on Tuesday; at the funeral home. The family suggests memorials to the Deshler Church of Brethren, American Heart Association or a charity of the donor's choice.
