“ I knew Carl in high school. Through music and our circle of friends, we had many good times. Anyone taking the time to get to know him can tell you about his generosity and good-humor. Later on he served his country as a member of the navy. I thought of him many times over the years and thought about getting back in touch. Thankfully I did get in touch once but it should have been more. Do you have an old friend like that? If so, you need to call them today. Don't be like me - who learned the hard way - that if you wait too long, you may lose your opportunity. Rest in peace, Carl.

“ My name is Kelly. I did have the pleasure of knowing you as a younger boy. Even as a young man living in cleveland you were always trying to figure something out. One of the funniest things I remember about you is when you were trying to teach a young lady how to ride a bike with a friend Gerry. I must say it was a task. It took you finding a nickle on the ground to end the teaching, and the task now was to get rich finding more money. You look unbelievably so much like your dad Carl. I'm so sad to hear of your passing. Rest in peace

“ His Father is still alive and loved that little spitting image of him. I have listened to repeated stories over the years hearing his short memories of such a smart and creative little boy. Carl is amazing. And he was always the topic upon every in depth conversation. His father will smile so big reciting these memories as his eyes were glowing replaying these in his mind. He loved his only son. Nomatter life's circumstances that were dealt, as a parent, I felt it. If there is anything I can say ithat would be.... that anyone who played a part in Young Carl's life was truly touched by an amazing soul. I am sorry.

“ When we first moved across the old house Carl was renting we couldn't have had the coolest neighbor ever! When he and Shannon moved we were happy for them but at the same time sad because we became very close to them and had great times while he played his music and the fireworks he would put on the 4th of July. We served in their wedding. Now I am asking myself what went wrong that he took his life. We are so sad, shocked and heartbroken. My prayers go out to Shannon and her children and to all his family and friends. May God give you all the strength to get through this trying time. Fly high with the Angels Carl! Love Cheryl & Buck

“ I didn't really know Carl all that well seeing as I had only spoken to him a few times but that isn't the point of this message. In the short time I had spent with him he had been more kind to me than even some people I have known for my whole life. Carl was one of the sweetest people I have ever met and I will carry the memory of him with me for the rest of my life. I aspire to treat others the way he treated me. He will live on.

“ My name is Jeannie Cocke. I am the mother of Jenny (Schwiebert) Saucedo, Amanda (Schwiebert) Martinez, and Kyle Schwiebert. Carl was one of my many "band kids". My 3 kids also went to Patrick Henry and were in band, so I knew Carl since he was in 5th grade. My two daughters graduated in 1999 and 2001 and my son in 2005. Our band was a very close-knit group and just like family. I've tried to keep in touch, if only just on FB, with most of my band kids, but I lost touch with Carl around when my son graduated. My heart is broken from this news. 😞 Please know he was loved. I talked with him often while he was still in school. Sometimes the talks would be serious, sometimes goofy like Carl could be. Please know my prayers are with you that you can surround yourself with your memories and rest in th comfort of God's arms.
