“ I said goodbye to Carolyn yesterday. She looked like a million dollars as usual. She always radiated beauty inside and out in the many years we were friends and neighbors. Carolyn was prepared and ready to meet Jesus and in our talks, I came to know she was convinced that it was a wondrous moment to look forward to. My sympathies go to all her loved ones. Precious memories will keep her in all our hearts.

“ Our condolences to Scott, Todd and the Plassman family. Your Mom was such a special lady! She was so kind hearted, caring and generous to all. But what she excelled in was living life to the fullest and did so with a smile that would light up any room. I have such great memories of our families friendship through the years. We will continue to keep you in our thoughts and prayers.
