There are no words to adequately express my sympathies, but please know that you have friends who love you and support you in all things. I wish I could do something to help, but I know that no one can and my prayers are all I can offer you right now. “ I am saddened to learn of the passing of Austin. I shared laughs with Austin when I visited Gamestop, and shared memories of how I entertained my son.. (his co-worker, Kolt) as a child. i.e. hand puppets and songs that Austin found amusing.. I bet he even used my idea to entertain his own child. My heart hurt when I found out the horror he had happen to him. My Sympathies to all. Remembering Austin with smiles and laughter. Sincerely.##imported-begin##Keri Croft##imported-end##

“ Austin, I still can't put it in my mind that your gone. The few six months that I knew you, you had put such a great impact on my life. From singing and dancing in the car to country music especially to your favorite song Red Solo Cup to the long and crazy nights in the hospital. You always knew how to cheer someone up. Ill never forget the time I came to visit you in the hospital and the first thing you said to me was how much were your sweat pants because they had to cut them off knowing that I didn't care about the pants as long as you were okay. I will honestly miss you. Keep on smiling and live the life you've always wanted. You will always live in every person you impacted and i am very pleased to say that I am one of those impacted people. I love you always my brother I promise.##imported-begin##Kayla Griffin##imported-end##
