“ Elmer brought something special to my life as a child. He was my Santa Claus. Every year I looked forward to hearing his bells at my front door and sitting on his lap telling him everything I wanted for Christmas. We didn't have much when I grew up and my parents didn't have much to spend on Christmas for presents, but getting a personal visit from Santa really made my day. He was a kind hearted human being that will truly be missed.##imported-begin##Shawn Badik (clark)##imported-end##
