“ Sammy...Having the privilege to meet and spend some treasured time with "MA" Boulton, while you & Sue were in Louisville, I discovered quickly where you got your strong personality and witty sense of humor. Veronica & I both now without our parents, share your deep feelings of losing the person who gave you life. Our thoughts are with your entire family, and especially your grandchildren whom I sure you will tell them many stories of your mom.

“ Sam, Sharon and families,
My memories of Aunt Cass are few because you moved when I was little, but I do remember the visit to Maryland, and her visits to the old house in Pennsauken. The barbecues at Uncle Buds were unforgettable. I know my father and his brothers always said she was their favorite aunt. I will always remember the phone calls over the years as we kept in touch. Our prayers are with you.
