“ I became Jean's step daughter, June of 1977
I was 17 years old. Jean made Dad very happy and they had a long loving 38 year long union. After dad passed, Jean was very lonely and stated to me she was ready to go to be with her friends and family that predeceased her. I'm so grateful that Jean is no longer suffering on this Earth but now has eternal happiness. My heartfelt condolences to Jean's daughter Candace, granddaughter Shari and their families as well as Jean's step children and grandchildren. In loving memory, Beth (Tanner) Brentlinger. Please feel free to contact me. My phone number should be in Jean's address book. Would love to hear from you.

“ We loved eating at the Elery Supper Club with Jean and Jim for many years. She always kept us up on what was going on with the family and in the neighborhood. In later years we stayed in touch by cards and phone. She will be missed. Deepest sympathy to all the family.
