“ My mom, Evelyn (Wolfe) Kyzivat met Charlene's mom Brenda when they were both beginning teachers in Greenville Michigan. They remained friends throughout their lives. As a result Charlene and I grew up as virtual cousins. Our families visited in summers, mostly at the Ayers summer cottage on lake Erie. Charlene, along with her dad and brother taught me to water ski.

Our mom's were always trying to pair the two of us off, but it didn't work.

After Charlene's mom died she would call my mom for the advice she could no longer get from hers.
