“ The best Aunt a kid could ask for! Aunt Char would make me laugh each and every time I was near her. She had a charm about her that made me want to be near her and hope time would slow down so I could spend more of it with her. I loved her laughter, her practical jokes, the way she loved little children, her cooking, the sweetness of her generosity, and my three favorite words; "Oh my garsh!" I never once heard her complain, use a curse word, or say anything unkind about another person. Her heart was full of love, which is why my heart is full of pain at her passing. Give my Mom a hug, Aunt Char! Say hi to Jeff for me. Rest with God and watch over us from a place that is giving you comfort from all that pained you here on Earth.

With love~

“ Char was the sweetest lady. She was kind to everyone she met and was so generous to her friends and family. I had a funny story to share about me and Char. Christine and I lived in Cape Girardeau, Mo. Char and Sandy (Sister) visited. I wanted to go to the casino and gamble. No one would go, but Char ended up going with me. We drove 1.5 hours to Illinois and had a great time. I enjoyed her spirit and zest for life. She even won on slots and was so excited! She will be missed!

“ So many memories of family gatherings and lots of laughter! Will never forget the look on Krystal's face when the hillbilly wedding party showed up at their reception (I think Char was the flower girl?) lol....How my mom loved when they pulled these stunts, and dad too. Now she can lead the gang up above...much love to you all!
