“ Mark & I first meant Chuck when he built a barn for us in 1979 and then another one the following year. While building the second barn one of our dogs had a litter of pups in which Chuck fell in love with one of them, (Ringo). Some years had passed when God had our paths cross again. A young man had started attending the church where Mark and I attended. Little did we know that this young man was Chucks grandson, Chris. Long story short, Chuck, Marjorie and Cathy became apart of our family when Chris and our daughter, Erin became husband and wife. The wisdom that Chuck passed to Chris, now will be passed to Wesley and Evie when the stories of Chuck is told to Chris and Erins children. Chucks life lives on.

Chuck, (Papa), rest in peace. Untill we see each other again. Dear sweet friend.

“ *Dear Margie, I am so sorry to hear about Chuck. He had told me last time I talked to him on the phone that he had some times in and out of the hospital last year, but we didn't elaborate. You and he were so loyal to our class of '56, and we are going to miss you at the next reunion. I wish I could make it to the funeral home for the funeral, but I have a full calendar this weekend. I am thinking of you, it is very hard to lose your mate.
