“ I was so saddened to read of Cheryl's passing and know that her memory will be a blessing to me, as it will to all of you. I first met Cheryl when her mother lived at the Lutheran Home. Cheryl quickly became a Napoleon ambassador for me, introducing me to people and opportunities for meaningful volunteer work. She also become a cherished friend. When my husband tried to learn the names of all my friends in Napoleon, he dubbed Cheryl "tiki hut Cheryl" as he remembered her warm and welcoming backyard from a visit back to Napoleon we made after I had moved away. I know that I am just one of many lives Cheryl touched and I am so thankful that our lives crossed. RIP until we meet again dear friend. Carolyn Snedeker Kazdan
