

C. James Cook

August 24, 2012

C. James Cook, 73, of Napoleon, Ohio went home to sing in God's heavenly choir on August 24, 2012. He was born July 26, 1939 in Napoleon to the Charles A. & Hilda (Homan) Cook. On February 11, 1989, he married Beth (Richards) Cook at Peace Lutheran Church. Jim owned and operated Jim's Snowmobile Sales and was an avid snowmobiler who enjoyed the trails of Northern Michigan. He was a member of GWRRA and loved showing off his trike and taking ice cream rides. He started his working career as a car salesman "Honest Jim, the working man's friend" for several local automotive dealerships and retired from Gerken Paving as a heavy equipment operator in 2002. Jim faithfully attended and served God at Peace Evangelical Lutheran Church, rural Deshler, where he served as trustee, elder, and foremost as bass in the church choir. He also served on the new kitchen committee and was chairman of the Christmas Candy pack for several years. He is survived by his wife, Beth, son, Jeff (Becky) Cook and daughter, Jenise Cook, both of Napoleon, and Beth's children, Tracy Ekstrand and Richard Ekstrand of Napoleon, and Dan Junge of Powell, grandchildren, Devin, Nicholas, Jeremy, and Matthew Cook, and Amber (Kris) Link, Nathan Ekstrand, Jerica (Tom) Fisher, Josie Kline, and Makaela Ekstrand. and great grandchildren, Kourtney, Kirstin, Gavin, Jadyn, and Eli, and a brother, Kenneth (Nancy) Lange of Napoleon, and his faithful companion, Sam. He was preceded in death by a granddaughter, Chelsea. Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. on Tuesday at Peace Lutheran Church, Deshler. Interment will follow at Grelton Cemetery.

Visitation will be held on Monday from 2-8 p.m. at Rodenberger Funeral Home, Napoleon and Tuesday from 10-11 a.m. at the church. The family suggest memorials be made to Henry County Humane Society or a charity of the donor's choice. Online condolences may be made at www.rodenbergerfuneralhome.com
