

Coleman, Jr David

May 12, 2012

David A. Coleman II, 32, of Napoleon, Ohio passed away unexpectedly from football injuries sustained at Springfield High School while playing a fundraising game on Saturday, May 12, 2012. He was born on July 10, 1980 in Bowling Green, Ohio to David Coleman I and Shawn (Lotz) Allport. Dave played semipro football for the Jay County Panthers of Portland, IN. He loved playing football, but even more he loved his family and 5 beautiful daughters. He drove truck for the last several years and was presently driving for Berner Trucking, Inc. in Toledo, Ohio. He attended Patrick Henry High School and later put himself through truck driving school and obtained his CDL in Indiana. He attended Cedar Creek Church in Perrysburg. Dave enjoyed listening to country music, raising animals, and watching the Ohio State Buckeyes. He is survived by his father; David Coleman I of Deshler, Oh, his mother; Shawn ("Duke") Allport of Malinta, and stepfather, Ronnie Babcock of Napoleon, daughters; Jasmine, Breanna, Abbigail, Elizabeth and Alexandria, grandparents, George Coleman of Deshler, Jim (Carol) Lotz of Bowling Green, siblings; Jessica Coleman and Devin Coleman, both of Napoleon, Anthony Coleman of Montpelier, Shanda Babcock of Hamler, Dylan Babcock of Malinta, Josh Geahlen of Napoleon, Jordan and Harley Allport, both of Liberty Center, many nieces and one nephew. He was preceded in death by grandmothers; Shirley Lotz and Betty Coleman. Funeral services will be held at Rodenberger Funeral Home, 1010 Westmoreland Ave. Napoleon on Friday, May 18 at 2:00 p.m. officiating Pastor Adrienne Meier. Interment will follow at Grelton Cemetery. Visitation will be held on Thursday from 2-8 p.m. at Rodenberger Funeral Home, Napoleon and 1 hour prior to the service on Friday. The family suggests memorial donations be made to the David Coleman Memorial Fund at the funeral home or any First Federal Bank . Online condolences may be made at www.rodenbergerfuneralhome.com.
