“ He was my papa, he was the best man ever! Never quit always put his mind to something. even when he was super sick he still went outside to get work done before he passed. I miss him so much, but I will always know he is with Jesus watching over me.

To all of Danny's family I know what Danny's doing. He is being hugged by my mother as she always loved that blonde little boy. His dad and my dad and mother are there greeting him and so is his mom and no more awful pain. He is with God the most precious thing. I will miss him. Aunt Jean
