“ So many fond memories, from school, from church, from fun times! Darlene was in our 1953 Ridgeville graduating class and a fellow confirmand with me and Ronny at St. Peter church. She gave so much to so many, especially in her work at Fulton County Hospital where our mother received so much attention and care. Please know of my sympathy as I express my condolence to the family. Mary Ellen, Jim and Bill, I am so sorry I was unable to make the trip to attend today. My heart and thoughts are with you all! The Helmke and Meyer family have shared so much over the years! Godspeed to you all!

“ Our memories of Darlene center around the times we spent at Grand Lake. Darlene was a fun-loving gal and her enthusiasm spread to everyone.
John just cheered up at the sound of her name. He loved her very much.
