“ To all those in Ohio I send my sincere condolences. Don was a great father-in law to me in my marriage to Bob, and even after the fact when my life moved on. I remember when I visited him in Napoleon when I would go back to Ohio from Phoenix, I would visit him after Lynnette passed, he got a phone call from someone and cut them short and said he would call them back, as his daughter-in-law was visiting. We always connected no matter what. He cared for so many, and I thank the Roe family for taking care of him. We have great memories, don't we?
