“ Lynn I was so saddened to hear of your dad's passing. Your dad had an awesome laugh and a zest for life. My fondest memory was being paid to pick dandelions in your neighbor's yard for your dad's attempt at wine making.

“ Carolyn and I have had many great memories with Don and Lois over the years we have known them. From our time in the Gunnisons in Westfield to the annual golfing trips with our friends. The guys had great fishing trips on Lake Erie where it always seemed to storm while we were overnight at Put-in-Bay. The construction of our hunting camp in Pennsylvania was another great adventure and the families still enjoy it today. We will miss Don greatly.

“ We were backyard neighbors in Anthony Wayne for many years which afforded us many days to share activities with Don and the family. Don had a fishing boat he enjoyed taking out on Lake Erie. Lew enjoyed fishing with Don. In fact Don stored a canoe in the backyard and when it rained really hard the kids could paddle the canoe in our backyards. We wish happy memories to Lois and the family. Lew and Marty Johnson
