

Duquette Albert

June 7, 2012

Albert D. Duquette, 92, of Napoleon, Ohio died Thursday, June 7, 2012 at Vancrest Nursing Home in Holgate, Ohio. He was born on January 16, 1920 in Gibsonburg, Ohio to the late Ivro & Mabel (King) Duquette. On June 30, 1940, he married Norma (Klein) Duquette in McClure, Ohio, who preceded him in death on March 29, 2009. Albert was the owner and operator of L.P. Carburetion in Napoleon and also worked at Crown, Cork, and Seal in Rossford. He was a member of Emanuel Lutheran Church in Napoleon. He liked to sew and he used his talents to help make quilts for the church. His favorite love was his grandchildren and spending time with them. He is survived by daughters, Jan (Steve) Mantel of Bryan, Connie (Bill) Williams of Napoleon, 9 grandchildren, 11 great grandchildren, 3 great great grandchildren, and a sister, Marie Bressler of Bowling Green. He was also preceded in death by a son, James, sisters; Bernice Mitchell, Pauline Esterline, Edna McDonald, and brothers; Orville, Art, Lloyd, Robert, & Leroy Duquette. Funeral services will be held on Monday, June 11 at 11 a.m. at Emanuel Lutheran Church, Napoleon with Pastor James Castello officiating. Interment will follow at Forest Hill Cemetery in Napoleon. Visitation will be on Sunday from 4-8 p.m. at Rodenberger Funeral Home, Napoleon and Monday from 10-11 a.m. at the church. The family suggests memorials be made to Emanuel Lutheran Church or a charity of the donor's choice.

“ I am so very sorry to hear that Al has passed away and even more because I was not able to attend the service. He was always very kind to me. I loved the twinkle in his eye and his ready smile. He was kind and hard working and loved his family. Al & Norma were special people; they will be truly missed. Take Care, Kay Vance###imported-begin###Kay Vance###imported-end###
