“ Dustin man I cant believe this. I was in shock when i heard. It seems like yesterday we were just walking down hidden creek with brad messing around with passing cars and laughing. I remember when we were messing with swafford in ms.Sparks class and always getting kicked out. Dustin, I am so sorry we fell out on not the best terms. I will see you again soon man. “ A wonderful and enlightening friend, father and human being. Dustin I miss you so much and I am still struggling to accept that you have passed on. I keep waiting for your phone call so I can hear your voice. I love you and I am forever grateful that I was able to call you a friend! We shared so much in common that I feel a part of me is gone with you. Where ever you are, I know you are laughing and putting a smile on a new friend. You will always be in my heart and never forgotten. I miss you.....

“ You accepted Maci and I as part of your family and you became part of ours over 6 years ago. I loved all the memories we made and will cherish them forever. There was some tough love in there but the love was always there. You and I have had many conversations about Jesus and religion and I know in my heart your in heaven that your heart was in the right place and you are at peace now. Will hold a piece of you in my heart always and I will see you again

Jeff - you are in my thoughts and prayers. I understand the pain. Too many unanswered questions and what if's when one so young passes before we think they should. In the normal scheme of things, we should never have to lay to rest our children. The good Lord has a better plan for Dustin, even if we do not understand it.
