“ Ann, You certainly have my sympathy. When I read that your mother was at The Lutheran Home I planned to visit her since I go practically every day to visit my husband, but shortly after I saw that she was there I heard that she had died. I knew her best through Retired Teachers. She was faithful in coming and in serving the organization. I had hoped to get to the visitation but I became involved in something else and didn't make it. I'm sure your Christian faith will strengthen and comfort you and your family at this time of grief. In sympathy, Dora Titgemeyer

“ Our sincere sympathies. Eleanor will be remembered by many of her former students. She was a great teacher and touched many lives in positive ways. She was an active member of our Henry County Retired Teachers Association and we will miss her. May God's blessings be with her family, relatives, and friends.
