“ You will be so much missed , you and David spent a lot of time together when we lived at the trailer . You two were always into mischief but Bill always laughed his butt at you two.God had a plan for you . May god be with your family as they go thru the hurt and pain .

“ Condolences to the family, many prayers with you all, may God give you the strength to navigate this journey.

Elijah had a beautiful smile that will be missed. Growing up in McClure, running around the trailer park, listening to JoAnne yell and shake her head at him will be forever remembered ❤️ . Elijah was funny, knew how to play pranks and sure did know how to have fun.

I dont understand why God chose this journey for you Elijah, but your with Dick, JoAnne and Bill watching over everyone now, may you rest in peace.
