“ Deep sympathy to Liz's family and friends. She was likely the best childhood friend I had when I almost crashed into a tree while we biked in the woods alone together. Afterward, her mom treated me to lunch at their house. Thanks for her life-changing companionship.

“ I am sorry to know this sad news. We were neighbors many years ago and played many games, the front porch at the Ney house on College Drive was home safe base when playing Monster and Hide and seek. I am sorry I could not make it to the Services. It would have been nice to see old friends we lost touch with. My condolences to all .
