

Estefana Sifuentes

February 13, 1933 - October 13, 2015

Estefana Sifuentes, 81, of McClure passed away peacefully surrounded by her family on Tuesday, October 13, 2015. She was born in LaGrulla, Texas on February 13, 1933 to the late Jesus and Estefana (Contreras) Rangel. Her mother died during birth and she then was raised by her aunt, Panfila and father who later married. On June 17, 1953 she married her loving husband Oscar Sifuentes, Sr. in Edinburg, Texas.

Estefana worked at the former Temcole Radish Plant in McClure for 10 years and was a busy homemaker, mother and loving wife. She loved spending time with her family. All of her grandchildren were a great priority to her as she dearly loved spending time with them. She attended St. Augustine Catholic Church in Napoleon.

She is survived by sons, Humberto Sifuentes, Rene (Barb) Sifuentes, Oscar Sifuentes, Jr., Joe (Irma) Sifuentes, and daughters, Nora (Jeff) Reinbolt, Nilda (Steven) Halker all of McClure, 12 grandchildren, 10 great grandchildren, brothers, Antonio (Ernestina) Rangel, Huston, Tx., Arturo (Lupita) Rangel, Harlinger, Tx., Alfredo (Ruth) Rangel, Lake Jackson, Tx., Alberto (Margarita) Rangel, Houston, Tx., Arnulfo (Rosie) Rangel, Holland, Tx., Jesus (Mary) Rangel, Jr., Arselmo Rangel, and a sister Aurora (Javier) Verde all of Houston, Tx. She was preceded in death by her father, mothers, and brother, Armando Rangel.

Funeral Services in honor of Estefana will be private at her request.

Memorial Donations may be given to Henry County Hospice or the Lutheran

Home in her honor.
