“ *Dear Jaqua Family,
So sorry to hear of the loss of Evelyn. Evelyn was indeed a strong and quiet woman. May her soul rest in peace. At our family gatherings, I remember Evelyn was always prim and proper. I enjoyed talking to your mom - she would always inquire about my family and my work and was genuinely interested in my childrens' activities.*

I am sure she is happy to be reunited with Calvin and is probably already listening to some of Nellys' interesting stories !

I pray that God brings you and your family peace, gives you strength and comforts your hearts during this difficult time.

Loads of Love,

Darline Clemens and family

“ Dear Jaqua Family,

So sorry to hear about Evelyn and just know our family is lifting each of you up in prayer for peace and comfort during this time. One fond memory is of her coming to parties hosted by Nelly, being so well dressed and always bringing food to share with everyone. She would always ask how she could help, as she was never afraid of getting her hands dirty. She enjoyed the festivities . . . even if we couldn't get her to dance! We remember Evelyn showing us the farm and it was easy to see how much she enjoyed managing everything. Once, we arrived to her cutting the grass on an incline we wouldn't dare to try! She will fondly be remembered as always caring, asking how we were doing, and remembering the details about each of us. May she dance in heaven.

*Love,
Merrill, Mary, Kelsey and Preston*
