“ Evelyn was our next door neighbor, and we couldn't have asked for a better one. I have so many happy memories of her coming to our home, almost daily, to share stories with my mom, support us kids, buy whatever we were selling in support of band, 4-H, etc. she was always willing to try out whatever food projects we were making for 4-H, and was a shoulder we could cry on when things didn't go so well at school or in our teenage world. The cookbook that she and my mom put together was a labor of love for both of them, and will forever be treasured by our family. She and Rosie were so welcoming and supportive of my husband, Bob. In recent years, I've hosted an annual tea party when my sisters are back in town, and it has given our daughters a chance to get to know the Evelyn they had heard so many stories about. Our last one was in late June. They grew to love her and laugh with her as well. She truly made our world a better place. Thanks for all the wonderful memories, Rosie and Evelyn! Much love, Marcia, Bob, Elizabeth, and Maria Latta

“ The first year Evie moved in next door, she called me and insisted we make a Christmas arrangement together. We cut pieces from our pine trees, gathered the ornaments, candle, and floral foam. We both made beautiful center pieces that filled our homes with the scent of pine. The needles have long been dried up and the candle burned out, but the good memories of our laughter and conversation that day continues to burn bright! Lesson: reach out to your neighbors, you never know what joy it may bring!

“ I am so sad to hear of Evelyn's passing. She was just the best neighbor and friend while we were growing up. We have the best stories from Evelyn and Rosie, just too numerous to mention, but that will always bring a smile to my face. Evelyn, you will be missed.
