“ I had not seen Gary and Sandy for several years until Nov of 2014 when they stopped in Sarasota, FL. What a great treat it was to have him call me and then come over for a way too short visit. But that day was special to be reunited with my cousin and to hear what he was up too and talk about his wonderful family. I was expecting to hear from him in 2015, and wondered what had happened. I am so sorry to hear of his death way too soon. May all the great memories warm and comfort your hearts in the years ahead. I am very saddened not to have spent more time with him.
