

Gineman Larry

August 17, 2013

Larry Gineman, 74, of Liberty Center died peacefully on Saturday, August 17, 2013 at his residence. He was born February 19, 1939 in Liberty Center to the late John & Grace (Anspach) Gineman. On August 4, 1961, he married Shirley (Koester) Gineman in Jasper, Michigan. Larry was a lifelong farmer. He also worked construction for Creager & Sons of Liberty Center for 19 years, dug graves for Young Cemetery for many years, and drove semi-truck for Davis Farm Services for over 36 years. He was a member of Liberty Chapel United Methodist Church, the Liberty Center Zoning Board and 4-H Advisor for 10 years. He was an International tractor man and collected miniature tractors. He had a love for animals and will be greatly missed by his miniature donkey and pygmy goats. He is survived by his loving wife, Shirley of Liberty Center, children; Kim (Jeff) Spiess and Kevin (Karen) Gineman, both of Napoleon, grandchildren, Travis Gineman and Trent Gineman, great granddaughter, Ellison Gineman, sisters; Joyce (Paul) Eichar of Cygnet and Marybeth McClure of Napoleon, and brother, Kenny (Diana) Gineman of Holgate. Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. on Wednesday, August 21, at Rodenberger Funeral Home, Napoleon. Entombment will follow at Riverview Memory Gardens, Defiance. Visitation will be held on Tuesday from 2-8 p.m. at Rodenberger Funeral Home, Napoleon. Memorials may be given to Hospice of Henry County or M.S. Society.
