

Gladys McClure

November 10, 2008

Gladys McClure, 90, of McClure, Ohio died Monday, Nov. 10, 2008 at the Golden Living Center-Northcrest in Napoleon, Ohio. Born Jan. 4, 1918 in Richfield Twp. to Bert & Bertha (Beavers) Hicks. On Feb, 14, 1937, she married Donald McClure in McClure, Ohio, who preceded her on Nov. 21, 1995. Gladys was a homemaker and worked for Temcole and Hoffman Produce in McClure. She is survived by a daughter, Janet Kerwin of McClure, grandchildren, Mark (Anne) Kerwin of Marion, IN, Matthew (Michele) Kerwin of McClure, and Joel (Cheryl) Kerwin of Napoleon, OH; great grandchildren, Valerie (JD) Wilson, Amanda & Derrick Kerwin; and great great grandchildren, Haley & Jenna Wilson. She was also preceded in death by brothers, Lawrence, Raymond, Everett, Floyd, Harry, Clifford, and Walter Hicks; sisters, Dorothy Johnson, Edna Butler; and son-in-law, Roger Kerwin. Funeral services will be held at 11a.m. on Thursday at the Rodenberger Funeral Home in Napoleon, OH with Pastor Robert Shidler officiating. Interment will follow at the Hockman Cemetery in McClure. Friends may call from 4-8 p.m. on Wednesday at the Rodenberger Funeral Home in Napoleon. The family suggests memorial contributions to charity of the donors choice.

Tribute Wall

“ My prayers to out to the family of Gladys I can remember taking care of her when she was living at Heritage Inn. I loved playing cards with her and I would bring her special treats. I know she will be missed##imported-begin##Angie Honeyman##imported-end##

November 12, 2008 at 12:00 AM