

Glen Rodenberger

May 8, 1930 - September 3, 2021

Glen Rodenberger, 91, of Davenport, Florida died peacefully on Friday, September 3, 2021. He was born May 8, 1930 in Alger, Ohio to the late Clarence and Edna (James) Rodenberger. On March 27, 1953 he married Mary (Bigley) Rodenberger and she preceded him in death on August 10, 1988.

Glen served in the U.S. Army during the Korean War. He worked as a truck driver for Brandt Trucking, Lexington for over 30 years. After retirement, he and Mary moved to Florida, where they resided in a couple different retirement communities. They enjoyed spending time with friends and family, especially at the theme parks. He had a smile that would light up a room and will be missed dearly.

He is survived by a son, Greg and Michelle Rodenberger of Palm Harbor FL; grandson, Michael of Clearwater, FL; granddaughter, Erica and great grandson: Micah, both of Palm Harbor, originally from Lexington, OH; son, Timothy and Cricket Rodenberger of Pendleton, IN, four grandchildren, Christi of Fort Wayne, IN, Alisha (Dollarhite) of Warren, IN, Angela of Pendleton, IN, and Cassie of Indianapolis, IN. He is also survived by eleven great-grandchildren. He was also preceded in death by a brother, Clarence "Bud" Rodenberger, and twin sisters, Sina Mae Shriner and Lavina Foust.

A graveside service will be held at 11:00 AM on Monday, September 13, 2021 at Oak Grove Memorial Park, 4108 State Route 42, Lexington, Ohio.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Alzheimer's Association.

Online condolences may be made at www.rodembergergray.com

Cemetery Details

Oak Grove Memorial Park

4108 State Route 42
Lexington, OH 44904

Previous Events

Graveside Service

SEP 13. 11:00 AM (ET)

Oak Grove Memorial Park
4108 State Route 42
Lexington, OH 44904

Tribute Wall

SS

“ My deepest Sympathy go out to Tim and Greg as well as their families in the loss of their Daddy, grandpa and great-grandpa. To Jeri and her family know we are thinking of your loss too. He was a fun filled uncle with jokes, smiles and more. I know he will be truly missed by each and everyone of you who hold a special memory of him. You all will continue to be in my thoughts and prayers as God guides you through your loss.

---

Sharon (Shirley) Sherer - September 10, 2021 at 08:43 AM