“ Jami Good family & friends, I am sincerely sorry for your all's loss. I was deeply sadden to had learned the recent news of your all's loss. Jami and I used to be childhood friends years ago when we both had lived out on Rt8 Park view Drive in Defiance. At some point while we were children we had lost contact with each other, until recently few months ago he and I re-connected on Facebook. It made my day when I found him online. He and I had chatted back and forth a little. I had hoped the next trip I made to Ohio to go hang out with him and reconnect to catch up on our lives since we had last seen each other years ago. I have just recently found out that Jami and I shared two good friends Chad & Nate Miller. I will deeply miss chatting with Jami and having such a great man in my life. He was a good friend. I will never forget him and the years we shared as children.##imported-begin##Brian Vance##imported-end##
