

Haas James

March 7, 2008

James Gary "Hunker" Haas, 67, of Deshler, Ohio died Friday morning, March 7, 2008 at his residence. He was born September 10, 1940 in Deshler to the late Earl and Crystal (Parsons) Haas. On February 17, 1962 he married Ardyth Mohr at the Deshler United Methodist Church and she survives. Hunker had previously worked for Stout Construction, Sylvania, Ohio; Kuesel Farms, Deshler; and the former Columbus Bolt, Deshler. He was a member of the Eagle's Lodge #2793, Leipsic, Ohio. He was a longtime softball player with the Leipsic Eagles and the Deshler Merchants softball teams. He is also survived by a daughter, Karren (Bruce) Blue, Hamler, Ohio; two sons, Darren (Brenda) Haas and Gary Haas, both of Deshler; 11 grandchildren, Makalie Blue, Denton Blue, Ashton Blue, Marissa Blue, Karigan Blue, Kalyn Blue, Kyle Haas, Brendan Haas, Kendra Haas, Brittany Haas and Mariah Haas; and a great grandchild, Karder. He was also preceded in death by a brother, Junior Haas and a sister, Virginia Ward. Visitation services will be held on Monday from 2-4 & 6-8 p.m. at the Rodenberger Funeral Home, Deshler. Interment will be private at a later date. The family suggests memorials be given to Big Red Youth Baseball, St. Jude's Children Hospital or a charity of the donor's choice. Online condolences can be made at www.rodenbergerfuneralhome.com.

“ I was so sorry to read about Hunker's death. Even though he and Mike had their difference and tiffs I always thought of Hunker as one of Mike's friends. I will remember Hunker as rough around the edges but with a heart of gold. He was also so respectful of me and was so good with Jed. I know you all will miss him, but you have good memories that will keep him alive forever. God Bless You All,
