“ Esther was always a sweet, lovable person; a cousin I got to know on only a few occasions. My dad was Ed Rohrs - we lived on 65 near 281 when I grew up. My sympathies to you.###imported-begin###Ron Rohrs###imported-end###

“ Dear Kathy, Bob and I are so sorry to hear of the loss of your mother. I have so many fond memories of your mother when you and I were growing up together. And when she and I were co-workers at the Community Bank, it was hard for me to call her Esther instead of Mrs. Hahn as I had done all those years before. She was a very special woman with a very kind heart. May memories bring peace to you and your family. Love, Cheryl (and Bob)###imported-begin###Cheryl Austermiller###imported-end###
