

Harold "Butch" Kistner Jr

April 15, 1947 - August 1, 2014

Harold Benjamin "Butch" Kistner Jr., age 67 years, of Fort Wayne, IN, formerly of McClure, OH, passed away peacefully in his sleep on August 1, 2014 in his brother's home in Fort Wayne. He was born in Toledo, OH on April 15, 1947, son of the late Harold B. Kistner Sr. and Mildred (Shank) Kistner of McClure, OH.

Harold was an independent truck driver for many years, owning his own company - North Coast Trucking. He served 3 years in the Marine Corps including one tour of duty in VietNam. He was a former member of the McClure United Methodist Church.

Harold is survived by his mother, Mildred, of McClure, OH; a son, Jamie (Helen) Kistner, of Columbus, OH; Sisters Donna Jean Fisher of Aurora, Missouri, Tresa (John) Rowland, of McClure, OH; and brothers Ronald (Nona) Kistner, of Springdale, AK. and David (Susan) Kistner of Fort Wayne, IN. He also had two grandsons, Tyler and Ethan. He was preceded in death by his father, Harold B. Kistner Sr. and his wife Pamela (Jones) Kistner.

Funeral services will be at 11 AM on Wednesday, Aug 6, 2014 at Rodenberger Funeral Home in McClure, OH with Pastor Thomas Moyer officiating.

Visitation will be held 2 - 4 PM and 6 - 8 PM on Tuesday and one hour prior to services at the funeral home on Wednesday.

Interment will follow in Hockman Cemetery in McClure with Military Honors accorded by the Marine Corps Burial Honor Guard and the McClure American Legion Post #332.

Suggested Memorials to the family in care of David Kistner to assist in funeral expenses.

“ I remember the first time I met Butch and Donna Jean in Toledo at our home on Ontario St. They were the 'cutest' little kids I had ever seen. Aunt Millie and Grandma Kistner had them looking like they were toddler models. Butch, I will miss seeing you again in McClure. See you in Heaven someday. Your 'cuz--Joyce

“ I remember the one and only family vacation we took. You showed up one day and announced that we were going to Sea World and Geauga Lake. The best two days of my life, and something I will remember till I part this world.

Love you Dad, may you rest in peace.

Thank you, I miss him very much. We never had a great relationship, but there were some moments and I think about them often these days. It's a strange feeling to have both my parents gone before I turn 40.
