“ I worked with Helene for many years at McCords ,but didn't get to really know how much fun she was to be around until I started picking her up to go to the McCord get-togethers and other things. We had a few good times at Spenglers,too. She was one feisty, funny woman !! I will certainly miss our chats on the phone.

“ We will always remember Helen for her kindness to my mother-in-law Lucille Meyer. She came over for many visits and also took Lucille out for meals. She was so proud of all her nieces and nephews and always had pictures to share of them. She will be truly missed.

“ Please accept our heartfelt condolences on Aunt Helen's passing. John has worked for her for a number of years, and I was fortunate enough to help in the flower beds occasionally. She was a wonderful, feisty, unique, and fun person to get to know. We will truly miss her.
