“ I remember Uncle Herb showing me around his shop. He was smiling as he described them to me. I'm sure God has a lot for him to do in His kingdom. Someone needs to keep track of things up there! Praying God comforts your family.

“ Love my Uncle Herb very much. He raised a bunch of neat cousins. He could talk, eat and work with a stub of a cigar in the side of his mouth. We will have a glorious heaven family reunion some day!
